Local Education Foundation Names New President

Talya R. Conroy has been named as President of BELL – the Education Foundation for Manassas Park City Schools.

Ms. Conroy is an Assistant Vice President and Branch Manager at United Bank. She lives by United Bank’s values of integrity, hard work, teamwork, and caring and drives to integrate these values into everything she does within her community.

Talya R. Conroy

Talya was born in London, England and moved to Manassas, VA in 1999.

Talya and her parents proudly became American Citizens on March 7, 2007.

She went through the Manassas City School system, graduating from Osbourn High School and then the University of Mary Washington.

For over a decade, Talya has put the service of others at the forefront of her career and professional development. She is passionate about developing long lasting relationships with her clients and members of the community as well as for giving back to the community that continues to give so much to her and her family.

Talya is a community advocate and belongs to numerous organizations while also volunteering within Prince William County and Manassas. Talya belongs to the Prince William Chamber of Commerce and is Co-chair of the Ambassador Committee and Committee Chair for the Silent Auction. She is the Vice President, Public Relations Director, and Club Service Projects Director for the Bull Run Rotary. At Bull Run Rotary, Talya has been able to participate in river cleanups, park cleanups, and supporting nonprofit organizations such as the Wounded Warrior Project and House of Mercy. Talya also serves on the Executive Board for Project Mend A House, and is the secretary and a member of Team Win, a women’s networking organization that promotes the power of women supporting each other in business.

Talya is incredibly excited for her new role as President of BELL and is honored and proud to be considered an advocate for Manassas Park City Schools.
